

NIGHTLIFE

Best Nightlife Spots To Experience In Panama City

BY JOEY BONURA - JUNE 3, 2024

This post is also available in: Español \(Spanish\)

Panamanians always enjoy a good party! The nightlife here offers a little bit of something for everyone, from underground lairs to chic nightclubs with Panama's "yeyecito" crowd. Most of the spots on this list are located in Casco Viejo, which in recent years has become the new epicenter of Panama City nightlife (so stay in this neighborhood if you like to party). From Sunday – Wednesday bars close at 3 am and Thursday, Friday, and Saturday bars close at 4 am. There are a few secret spots that stay open later but you'll have to discover those for yourself 😊

Panama Bar Crawl

If you're looking to experience the best of Panama City nightclub with a fun crowd, the Panama Bar Crawl is a must-do. Panama City's historic Casco Viejo boasts some of the capital's hippest bars, but finding the best spots requires local know-how. With this bar crawl you'll get one included drink at each of five happening places, joining a party crew of energetic guides and fellow travelers. The guides know the neighborhood, which means you can focus on having fun.

Book your spot here for \$50

El Cangrejo Bar Hopping

See the nightlife in Panama City beyond Casco Viejo, where you'll have the opportunity to visit the coolest bars in the El Cangrejo neighborhood on Via Argentina, make new friends, get to know the local culture and have a cultural exchange with the other travelers on the experience. You won't pay to enter the bars, you'll get a discount on beers, have a free shot and enjoy yourself! This experience is the best option for going out at night, making friends and getting to know the best bars in the area.

Book your spot here for \$20

Noa Nikkei

Noa Nikkei goes from being a trendy restaurant in the day to a trendy nightclub in the evening. This where you can avoid the kids as it attracts a 30+ crowd. Be sure to dress very nicely as this is one of the nicest spots to go out.

View location on Google Maps

Cangrejo Radio

Cangrejo Radio is the new coolest spot for electronic music to start a night out in Panama (or end early since they close at 1 am). The concept has a DJ facing the street while also live streaming the party, which is typically in full swing around 11:30 pm.

View location on Google Maps

Calle Dragones

Calle Dragones is a swanky venue where you can live music, salsa, and cabaret shows in Panama City. The location is on the top of a parking garage in Panama's original China Town, making it feel like a secret speakeasy when arriving. The food here is also excellent if you want to arrive early for dinner and stay for the party.

View location on Google Maps

Selina Rooftop

Selina is where you'll find the cool kids of Panama City sipping on cocktails and craft beer. The decor is tropical chic, utilizing lots of plants and vibrant murals splashed along the walls. They organize lots of weekly events like live salsa music, electronic music DJs, acoustic concerts, and more – so you can always count on something going on. You can also stay at Selina if you want to always be in the middle of the action.

View location on Google Maps

Tantalo

Stringed lights, good DJ, skyline view, and trendy Panamanians and foreigners always create the perfect party atmosphere at Tantalo's Rooftop. On Tuesday's they have Artes Martes where they have a live artistic performance, Wednesday is Latin Night, Thursday is Ladies Night, and on Friday, Saturday, & Sunday you'll find a trendy crowd dancing to the latest DJ mixes.

View location on Google Maps

Buena Vaina Social Club

Buena Vaina Social Club is one of the few places where you'll find something fun going on every night. Most nights of the week (including Sunday) feature music from Panama City's electronic music scene but just listen outside the club first to see what they're playing before going in.

View location on Google Maps

Biertgarten

This open-air tropical bar is where you'll find fun electronic music Djs playing on Friday or Saturday. Be sure to visit their instagram page @biergartenpanama to see the latest events. Also, this isn't a place to come super early to as most locals won't be there until midnight.

View location on Google Maps

El Tropicana Salsa Club

El Tropicana Salsa Club is one of the best spots for salsa right now. They feature a live orchestra with amazing shows that you can watch and participate in salsa dancing in between. On Saturdays at 5 pm they offer a Cuban style salsa class for $5.

View location on Google Maps

El Sotano / El Apartamento

There's no place like home, right? El Sotano (The Basement) and El Apartamento (The Apartment) have transformed a giant yellow house in Bella Vista into a bar and event venue. You can usually find live music on the first floor or head up to El Apartamento, which literally looks like an apartment, to listen to chill indie jams and enjoy a few drinks. It's also LGBT-friendly and hosts Ru Paul viewing parties and other events throughout the week.

View location on Google Maps

El Viejo Santana

El Viejo Santana is an upscale venue located on the edge of Casco Viejo and Santa Ana. They have parties on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday mostly playing reggaeton.

View location on Google Maps

Late Night Music

Late Night Music is not an actual venue but they organize some amazing electronic music parties in Panama City. Some of the best events are the boat parties and their annual event in Mi Pueblito. You can view their Instagram page @latenight_music to see if there is a special event while you're in town.

Lazotea

Lazotea is a trendy rooftop bar in Casco Viejo that is perfect for relaxing with a cocktail. They often have events throughout the week with live music or reggaeton.

View location on Google Maps

Chupitos

Chupitos is a legendary spot in Casco Viejo with other 100 shot recipes with lots of fire involved! Music here is mostly reggaeton.